S. C. EWING GETS LICENSE TO WED

A marriage license was granted at Farmington last week to Samuel C. Ewing and Miss Helma Walstrom, both of this city, according to the Davis County Clipper. Mr. Ewing is the proprietor of the Cullen hotel, of which institution Miss Walstrom has been housekeeper for about thirteen years. Mr. Ewing could not be seen last evening, and it is not known whether or not the marriage has taken place. None of the hotel employees knew anything of the affair, and seemed greatly surprised at the information that a marriage license had been secured.

Mr. Ewing is 36 years of age and is very well known in the city as the proprietor of the Cullen hotel since the opening of the hotel many years ago. The license was issued in Davis county last Tuesday. It is presumed that the couple journeyed to the Utah Grana Green to avoid publicity.

PERSONAL MENTION.

B. N. C. Stott, the well-known mining man of Eureka, spent Sunday at the Cullen. A. R. Jacoby of this city has been a guest at the Wellington hotel in New York for several days past. E. S. Foote, formerly a member of the Legislature in Utah, came up from Tucson yesterday and is stopping at the Cullen. Former State Senator Kennedy of Anaconda, Mont., who is now manager of the Anaconda Standard, is in the city on a business trip, and is at the Wilson.

Col. William M. Springer, president of the Union stock and bond exchange, is staying at the Wilson. Col. Springer is one of the foremost importers of blood horses in the country, and has just returned from Europe, where he has been making several important additions to his stud.

WANTED TO SEE THE CORPSE OF HIS VICTIM

Dennis Murphy was very drunk and equally indignant when he was taken to the police station last night and informed that he would be held under $10 bonds for assault and battery. Whereupon Mr. (his) "sauntered" demanded Murphy, he stood himself against the railing behind which the desk sergeant stood. "I want to see mon O' hit-dillo" shrieked. At this a boy about 14 years old stepped up and said that he was the one who had been hit. "Ye," yelled the Irishman, in disgust. "Av O' a hit the likes of ye, ye'd be in hives."

Officer Seifous, who made the arrest, declared, however, that Murphy had made an unprovoked assault on the boy, striking him in the face with both feet and cane, and Murphy sent for a friend, who put up the $10 required to insure his appearance in Police court.

ASSAY TEST ON NEPHI'S GOSPEL

Third of Dr. Paden's Popular Lectures on the Mormon Scriptures.

"Gospels, Apocryphal and Real," was the title of Dr. William M. Paden's sermon last night. It was, in a way, a continuation of his sermons on the Book of Nephi, and again a large congregation assembled to hear him.

He first gave an account of the apocryphal gospels, of the infancy, Nicodemus, the Birth of the Virgin and others. These he compared and contrasted with the gospel according to Nephi, which he had explained and dealt with in the preceding Sundays. Much in these so-called gospels any one could quote or rather from the real gospels; the greater part of the rest of the matter, of the rest, that is not copied, any one could write.

After this Dr. Paden went on to speak of the manner in which each of the real gospels added to the real word, to the pictures of Christ. Thus Matthew improves on Mark, Luke on Matthew and Mark and John on them all. Does Third Nephi add anything worth while to the picture? he asked.

Like the story of the Prodigal, John the story of the bad Samaritan, Matthew has given us many parables. What does Nephi add to this? he asked. He classified with such revelations? How does it come that this so-called fifth gospel gives us no new parables or real or original parables of the class that is found in the gospel according to Matthew would say it is necessary to say that the new chapter like the fifteenth of Luke or the third of John would be as great a surprise in the gospel according to Nephi as a parable like the twenty-fourth would be in the early part of the Book of Mormon. Concerning the authenticity of the would-be fifth gospel Dr. Paden made use of a very appropriate and telling simile. He said: The question is not, where do men say they got it, but, is it gold? These four nuggets are gold. If your supposed nugget is not, it matters little where you got it, but, is it gold? They must submit to the gold test.

HAROLD BAUER PLAYS TONIGHT

Distinguished Pianist Arrives and Is Entertained by Prof. McClellan and Others.

At the First Congregational church this evening Harold Bauer will appear in concert under the auspices of the Philharmonic Quartet association. Great interest has been aroused over the appearance of this gifted pianist, and a large audience is assured. The programme will begin at 8:30 o'clock, and Mr. Bauer will play the following numbers:

Sonata in F Sharp Minor.....Mendelssohn
Sonata in F Sharp Minor.....Schumann
Etude in C Minor.....Chopin
Fantasia.....Chopin
Impromptu in A Flat.....Schubert
Mephisto Waltz.....Liszt
Mr. Bauer, who is a native of Poland, is now stopping at the Knutsford Hotel. He will not be in Salt Lake long, as he has to leave for Europe on Tuesday. He was entertained at the Commercial club last evening by Prof. J. J. McClellan and other local musicians.

WAGNERIAN MUSIC AT THE TABERNACLE

No one could speak too highly of the work done by Prof. John J. McClellan at the organ recital in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon. A large number of strangers drank in the melody and every one was enthusiastically expressing pleasure and admiration when the concert was over. Harold Bauer, the great pianist, was among those present, and he took occasion to compliment Prof. McClellan and to praise the wonderful qualities of the great organ.

Mr. Bauer, who is a native of Poland, is now stopping at the Knutsford Hotel. He will not be in Salt Lake long, as he has to leave for Europe on Tuesday. He was entertained at the Commercial club last evening by Prof. J. J. McClellan and other local musicians.

HELD'S MUSIC MAKERS IN NEW UNIFORMS

Held's band had its usual large audience at the Grand last night and gave a well selected programme in honor of the new uniforms which the band wore for the first time, and which made a fine showing. Of the band numbers the most popular and best received was the "Bohemian Girl" selection, and which showed much careful handling and long practice. The band also played "Surprise" symphony. A new march, composed by Mr. Schuster, was played for the first time and gained much applause. Fred Graham used his beautiful voice in singing "The Irish Love Song," by Lang. Mrs. Mary Partridge, of the Bohemian band, sang "The Violinist of the occasion, also got encores for their selections.

WOULD SAVE SHOCKLEY FROM DEATH BEFORE A WHITE WALL

Mother, Sister and Friends of the Self-Confessed Murderer Make an Appeal to the People of Utah for Mercy in His Behalf.

BELLE, Mo., March 25, 1904.

To the Good People of Utah and Salt Lake City. I appeal to you for mercy for my boy. Your laws are just and those who violate them deserve punishment. If his life could restore to those widows their husbands, I would try to make the sacrifice and give him up, but it can never bring back those lives. He is all the boy we have, and if you knew him as I knew him to be when he first went away from home, you would certainly be merciful, for he was then an innocent, warm-hearted boy.

He is young and if you would only spare his life I am sure he would do all in his power to right the wrong he has done and warn other boys to guard against the temptations which have caused his downfall.

Praying and hoping that you may be merciful, I remain, His Loving and Broken-Hearted Mother, POLLY L. SHOCKLEY.

Statement of Citizens.

BELLE, Mo., March 24.—We, the undersigned, desire to make a few statements relative to James McPherson Shockley, whom you have in custody.

A statement written and signed by Rev. C. H. Logan, Dr. L. M. Owens and G. D. Underwood, cashier of Belle bank, has already been published in Salt Lake City. That statement gave a sketch of his family and of the high esteem in which they are held here, and in this statement we shall speak only of the young man himself.

We do not seek to justify his crime, but we think that the impression has been made in the minds of the people of your State concerning his early life, and we sincerely desire to let you know the truth in the matter.

We have lived neighbors to his parents since his early childhood and can truthfully make the following statements: As a child he was bright and quick to learn, and as he grew up was a favorite with his teachers, schoolmates and companions. At school his deportment, as shown by reports given him by his teachers, was good.

He was never a vicious boy, and while he sometimes engaged in boyish pranks or tricks, even these were of such a nature as to exhibit traits common to boys, and were not in the least indicative of inherent wickedness or crime. Knowing these to be facts, we think it justly due not only to his family, but to the younger man himself to let it be known to the people of your State, and we send this, kindly asking you to publish the same in your paper, and as it is a case of life and death and as his trial comes off so soon, we would request you to publish it at your very earliest convenience. Most sincerely yours, C. L. OWENS, S. A. CRIDER, J. L. UNDERWOOD, CELIA SHOCKLEY, WILLIAM MITCHEM.

SHOCKLEY'S CRIMES IN SALT LAKE AND OTHER CITIES.

"When I started out to turn a trick I never thought of the possibility that I might have to kill someone. I knew that if I had $10,000 and a man got the drop on me I would give it up before I would think of resistance. It never occurred to me that anyone would be so foolish as to risk his life for a little money. Robbing the street car company did not seem so bad as robbing an individual. I never took a cent from any one, and I took them all in the same way. I always asked the street car men if I had taken any of their own money, and I told them I had. I always asked the street car men if I had taken any of their own money, and I told them I had. I always asked the street car men if I had taken any of their own money, and I told them I had."

This was the statement made by James McPherson Shockley after he had confessed to the killing of Motorman Amasa Gleason and Conductor Thomas Brighton at the end of the East First South car line on the night of January 6th last. It is doubtful if Shockley could have been held for trial without his confession. His roommate, Percy Prothero, informed the police that Shockley had gone out on the night of the murder and come back pale and agitated, but Prothero's evidence was not conclusive. Finding himself and his partner, Prothero, in Salt Lake without work or money, he turned to highway robbery as an expedient for raising money. He was held pending his trial, which is to begin next Monday.

The young man has been in all the Western States, served with the regular army in the Philippines, winning a brevet rank, re-enlisted and deserted from the Philippines, had much success as a life insurance agent and advertising solicitor, and had worked at Idaho Falls just previous to the street car murder, as waiter in a restaurant, and when he was taken to the county jail, where he has been held pending his trial, which is to begin next Monday.

Further "sweating" brought from these two boys the admission that they had stood at the door of Mrs. Coates's house while Tyler extracted the $20 from the cash box, and when Tyler, a fifteen-year-old boy with a rather "tough" reputation, who lives at 38 West Third street, has confessed to being the principal in the burglary, and James Watson, alias "Skillet," and Stanley Rasmussen, brothers of 11 and 12 years of age, are in jail with him on the charge of being accessories in the crime.

It was quite late last evening when Mrs. Coates returned to her home and discovered that her money, which she had left in a small box in the cupboard, was missing. She at once made inquiries, which resulted in her learning that a crowd of boys had been hanging about her house during the afternoon, and she then reported to the police such facts as she was able to give. This resulted in the police assembling at the station a gang of nine or ten "newsies," several of whom testified to having seen the Tyler boy spending money quite freely during the afternoon, one example of his open-handedness having been the treating of a half-dozen boys and girls to baths at the Sanitarium "Skillet" and Stanley Rasmussen went to the police station questioning and said that Tyler had given them money, $1 and $2.50 respectively, before the amounts specified.

James and Tyler had paid some debts with part of the money given him, had spent some in other ways and had the remainder, about $10, in a billfold. Detective Chase went with the boy to the place designated and found $10 in a billfold. "Skillet" had spent all of his dollar.

Further "sweating" brought from these two boys the admission that they had stood at the door of Mrs. Coates's house while Tyler extracted the $20 from the cash box, and when Tyler, a fifteen-year-old boy with a rather "tough" reputation, who lives at 38 West Third street, has confessed to being the principal in the burglary, and James Watson, alias "Skillet," and Stanley Rasmussen, brothers of 11 and 12 years of age, are in jail with him on the charge of being accessories in the crime.

MOFFAT LINE KEEPS SURVEYORS BUSY

Accounts of the Moffat line show that the building is progressing at its fastest rate as the difficulties of construction will allow.

Chief Engineer Sumner makes a statement that the roadbed is completed as far as Boulder Park, some fifty miles west of Denver.

The route of the road in Utah has by no means been determined, he said. "Our surveyors are now merely exploring the Utah valley and surroundings, and catching on how the best grade may be obtained. Several lines will be run through that country, and the exact route will be decided as the nature of the ground is found, which will be the most economical."

A report has been current in Utah county that the road will pass through some thirty-five miles. Mr. Sumner said that there could be no foundation for this as the route is not yet determined. It is covered required that many preliminary surveys must be made before anything definite can be said. The route of the line will be run before they could decide on the sixty miles of route that lay between Denver and the main range of mountains.

BURT WILL BUILD PHILIPPINE RAILROAD

Horace G. Burt, former president of the Union Pacific, has other and larger fish to fry, as the saying is, besides his engagement with the Russian Government with the operation of the Siberian railroad, says the Denver News. It has just transpired that Mr. Burt, having consulted with President Roosevelt, has been called to a few weeks ago carrying with him the President's promise of the commission of the new railroad to be constructed in the Philippines.

The real mission of Mr. Burt in the East may be in the interest of the Russian Government and again it may not; it will be short-lived whatever it is, as soon as the United States is ready to begin actual work upon the contemplated railway lines in the tropics, Mr. Burt will go to the Philippines.

The news of Mr. Burt's real plans was first intimated by E. C. Rich of Omaha, assistant attorney for the Union Pacific railroad, who was a Denver visitor recently. He said, "I do not think that it was Mr. Burt's intention to enter the employ of the Russian Government when he resigned the presidency of the Union Pacific some time later, and I think after his consultation with President Roosevelt it is a fact that Mr. Burt, as President, held a conference in the East just before the former railroad president sailed for Europe."

Did this meeting concern railroad-building? he was asked. "Well, yes, I understand that it was," he said. "I think that the Philippines in connection with the construction of a system of Government railways there," said Mr. Rich.

Would he have charge of the deal that is, superintend it? he was asked. "Yes, I believe that it is," was the reply.

H. G. Powell, agent of the Illinois Central, is back in town from a business trip he has been making in the north. Superintendent J. H. Young of the Rio Grande Western returns today from a trip he has been making over the road.

E. H. House, assistant engineer of the Utah Pacific, was in town at the end of the week, and reported that good progress was being made in the survey of the proposed line. No definite location has been made, as the preliminary lines are still being run.

INVALID TRAIN ROBBER GOES FROM HOSPITAL TO PRISON

A. J. Moore, the alleged desperado who on February 25th was shot and quite seriously wounded on a train at Milford, was yesterday arrested at Holy Cross hospital in this city by Officers Radelek and Segar and taken to the city jail, where he is held awaiting the arrival of officers from Nevada with a warrant charging him with highway robbery.

A few days prior to the shooting in which Moore was injured an Italian was robbed of $20 at Calientes by two hold-ups. Descriptions of the hold-ups were sent out, and when the conductor of a northbound train at Milford saw the man who was described in the papers, he thought it was his duty to arrest him. The man was taken to the hospital, and when the train arrived there it was met by the Marshal of Milford and a deputy sheriff. Then the official attempted to arrest the suspects. Moore made a suspicious movement and the Marshal shot him. A number of Italians who were on the train, thinking another hold-up was in progress, thereupon became panic-stricken and began shooting at the train. In the melee Moore escaped and the Marshal was wounded. Moore was recaptured three hours later.

Moore was brought to this city and placed in the Holy Cross hospital for treatment. One of his arms was shattered and he was badly wounded in the hip. For a time it was thought he could not recover, but he finally rallied. The injured arm was amputated and he has since been gaining strength quite rapidly. For several days past he has been able to take all the food he wishes, and he is now able to exercise about the hospital, and although his hip is still in bad condition, the attending physician thinks he might attempt to escape, so he was turned over to the authorities. Pending his removal to the Nevada hospital he will be dressed in jail by Dr. Root, who has been treating him at the hospital.

The Nevada officers claim there is a charge of forgery against Moore at Pioche, Nev., on which he will be tried in the event that there should be lack of evidence to hold him on the robbery charge.

Secret Societies

Fraternal Brotherhood. At the regular meeting of Utah lodge No. 265 on last Tuesday evening several new members were initiated into the order and two new applications for membership were received. The final arrangements for the dance to be given on next Tuesday night, March 29th, were made.
